I did say that I would keep the OPC up-to-date with events. We have been reconsidering carefully where the scheme is in the light of the N Plan results and our own exhibition results – where we feel there are real differences in what we have heard/seen/been told. Therefore we have been considering how to alter the scheme to overcome those areas where we have failed to convince the public over the intentions of the landowner. We still believe on balance we have a scheme that is worth so much more to the community than the small impact it might have and therefore, whilst it will be amended in parts from the scheme shown to the public earlier in the year, we will nonetheless wish to present the final ideas to the OPC at an open meeting [as you have requested] so that our process is transparent. I feel our presentation would take say 30 minutes and we are then available for questions from the OPC members. Could you therefore raise this matter at your next meeting on Monday night and tell me:

- Best days of the week for a meeting to be held and where?
- The way a meeting would be managed by the OPC and who would be invited to talk?
- The likely time you would allot to this meeting – 1 hour, 2 etc?

All of that will allow me to prepare a presentation to you at a suitable date. I hope that helps.

With kind regards,
 Yours sincerely,

Graham
