

Outdoor Learning Tutor (North Hampshire)

Variable hours contract, £10 per hour.

Post based home based with regular travel to sites in North Hampshire, including Odiham, Hook, Basingstoke and Petersfield

The Hampshire and Isle of Wight Wildlife Trust (HIWWT) is the leading local nature conservation charity and is one of the largest of the county-based Wildlife Trusts with a lively, dedicated and passionate team of 90 staff and 1400 volunteers.

This is an exciting opportunity to help us lead public engagement activities to get more people interested in their local wildlife. This post will include delivery of birthday parties, visits for uniformed groups, public events and school visits which promote engagement with nature through fun, hands on activities.

The ideal candidate will be an enthusiastic professional who will have experience of leading children's activities and public events and the ability to work with a variety of demographics. A desire to inspire and motivate participants in a confident manner is essential.

Applicants should have a flexible attitude to working hours and be able to work weekends and occasional evenings.

Closing date: 9am, 7th May

Interviews: TBC
